Track Name: Goldsboro (Wayne County)
Location--Goldsboro, NC

Distance from main campus   50 miles   Type of experience: Full-Time   Number of Interns: 1

Overall Description: Interns are exposed to a variety of facilities in acute care and extensive community services.

Clinical Experiences: Wayne UNC Health Care http://www.waynehealth.org/	The Intern will be working with a variety of disease states and conditions. Including, but not limited to: diabetes, Renal disease, orthopedics, oncology, OB-GYN, COPD, cardiac disease, surgery and ICU. In addition to acute medicine, experiences will include exposure to Cardiac and Pulmonary Rehabilitation, Psychiatric Services, Outpatient Medical Nutrition Therapy, and Wayne Area Diabetes and Endocrine Center. Interns will have opportunities to calculate meal patterns using hand-held computers; utilize computer software for nutrition analysis of calorie counts, assess and recommend care plans for nutrition support, as well as assist with Performance Improvement activities.
Community Experiences: Wayne County Health Department http://www.wchd.net/ Center for Nutrition and Diabetes Health http://www.waynehealth.org	The Intern will obtain working knowledge of a variety of community dietetics programs including WIC and Center for Nutrition and Health outpatient facility. Specific skills that may be acquired include facilitating weight loss programs, targeting and evaluating interventions, developing effective community outreach, patient counseling, and personnel management.
Foodservice Experiences: Wayne UNC Health Care http://www.waynehealth.org/	State of the art menu and production facilities. Exposure to computerized ordering/receiving/inventory process. Exposure to catering functions. Interact with other department managers in problem solving. Participation in program implementation. Development and implementation of policies and procedures. Exposure to retail services. Management of food production. Development of management skills through working with the food service staff.