

Track Name: Wilmington (New Hanover County) Location— Wilmington, NC

Distance from Main Campus 125 miles

Type of Experience: Full or Part Time

Number of Interns: 2

Overall Description: Wilmington is an ideal area for dietetic Interns. It provides strong, excellent training facilities in all three Areas and provides a beautiful environment on the Atlantic coast.

Clinical Experiences: New Hanover Regional Medical Center https://www.nhrmc.org/	The clinical nutrition planned experience provides inpatient rotations in medical, pediatrics, obstetrics, surgical, orthopedic, psychiatric, oncology, rehabilitation, and intensive care services. Interns will be involved in nutrition screening, performance improvement, nutrition assessment and interventions, patient education, patient care conferences, and enteral/parenteral nutrition in the acute care setting. New Hanover Regional Medical Center is licensed for 682 beds and provides services for Cape Fear Hospital with 100 beds.
Community Experiences: New Hanover County Health Department http://health.nhcgov.com/	Provides nutrition services for patients in pediatric, maternity, family planning, and adult health. Experiences will be in the Women Infant, and Children's Supplemental Food Program and opportunities for developing/presenting nutrition programs/materials for community groups ranging in age from preschoolers to senior citizens. Some experience may also be with the Child Development Services Agency and Cooperative Extension.
Foodservice Experiences: New Hanover County Schools http://www.nhcs.k12.nc.us New Hanover Regional Medical Center	An innovative school foodservice program is recognized for its programming and student satisfaction. The intern will receive training in catering, working with various school cafeterias, food bids, nutritionally analyze foods served in schools, production, receiving, and food safety. A variety of catering and patient feeding activities are involved in a complex food service department. The intern will receive training in production, purchasing, receiving and storage, scheduling, trayline, cafeteria, and catering services.
Management Experience: Davis Community http://www.thedaviscommunity.org/	Davis Health Center provides extensive services for both LTC and rehabilitation. It has been ranked as one of the best nursing centers in the U.S.